

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,” says the LORD. “Thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.” Jeremiah 29:11

O, my friend, that your thoughts of yourself would be thoughts of peace and not of evil.” To be whole – spirit, soul and body – you must guard your heart and your thoughts. “As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.” (Proverbs 23:7)

Men who have poor self-esteem will view God through those same flawed lenses. Their assumption will then be that God views them with little worth or lesser value. For this reason alone it is essential that we begin to renew our minds and our thinking with God’s Word. (Romans 12:2). As we begin the process of “the washing of water by the Word” (Ephesians 5:26), we begin to align our thoughts with God’s thoughts. We begin to gain His perspective on life, on the world, and yes, on ourselves! Gradually we begin to perceive our value to Him and we can see His high estimation of not only one life, but all life!

It is most wonderful! God’s thoughts toward us cannot be numbered and every one of those thoughts is filled with peace! Every thought of God toward you is filled with kindness and the desire for your benefit and blessing – every thought! Yes, every thought of God toward you is for good – your good!

Now, that is something for you to rejoice in today!

“Thank You Lord for being mindful of me – and every one of those thoughts is concerned with my good! Thank You, thank You, thank You!”

Alleluia!

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com