

“For I have filled full the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.” Upon this I awaked, and beheld, and my sleep was sweet unto me.” Jeremiah 31:25

The Lord knows the inner turmoil of the human heart. “Because You have seen my affliction; You have known the troubles of my soul.” (Psalm 31:7).

Jesus, as our Mediator and High Priest before the Father, has “been touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.” (Hebrews 4:15).

It is precisely for this reason that we can come to Him without fear of rejection or condemnation – He can empathize with us on every level.

As Jesus had the promise from the Father to “not leave My soul in sheol” (Psalm 16:10), so He as our great Shepherd, can assure us that He will “restore our soul.” (Psalm 23:3). This “restoring of the soul” includes “filling to the full the weary soul” and “replenishing the sorrowful soul.”

“Yes Lord, I believe You are restoring My soul and I trust You to accomplish it because You said You would do it! Tonight, I will sleep with a new confidence because You are restoring, replenishing, and filling my soul to the full!” In the name of Jesus, amen!”

Alleluia!

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com