

“It is because of the LORD’s mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness.” (Lamentations 3:22 – 23).

Mercy, or the word “chesed” in Hebrew, convey to us, the idea of kindness, unfailing love or – lovingkindness. Such mercy is a character trait of the LORD. This trait exhibits His covenant faithfulness, His eternal willingness to extend, even to fallen mankind, His great graciousness.

This new day has dawned full of God’s covenant faithfulness! He is waiting to shower your life with a fresh start, courage to begin anew, or confidence to overcome the past. Because His covenant faithfulness cannot fail we may come boldly to the Throne of Grace to obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (Hebrews 4:16). And never forget this eternal truth, “Love never fails.” (1 Corinthians 13:8).

Where then in this new day may I find the Lord’s new morning mercies? His covenant faithfulness resides, as it always does, at the foot of the Cross of Calvary!

“Father, thank You for extending to me “new morning mercies.” Thank You for offering to me new beginnings. Thank You for Your covenant faithfulness that has been extended to me and upholds me through Your Son Jesus Christ!”
