

“How the gold is become dim! How changed the fine gold! Lamentations 4:1a

Of the many things that happen in the midst of crisis none may be more profound than the shift that takes place in a person’s attitude and priority toward material things. Money’s glitter cannot retrieve a child’s heart lost to his parent’s home. Gold’s glamour cannot heal a sick loved one. Currency cannot reverse an accident or payoff death’s advance. Riches cannot heal a broken and loveless marriage. And with what wealth can you assure eternal life?!

Crisis either changes perspective or it affirms it. Wealth is most definitely a tool, but it is not a saviour. To hope in the uncertainty of riches will always disappoint. “Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, Who gives us richly all things to enjoy.” (1 Timothy 6:17).

If your wealth holds your heart, sorrow is in your future. Therefore set your affections on those things what are above and use all your energy and resource to seek first the Kingdom of God. (Matthew 6:33).

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.” (Colossians 3:2)

“Father, I thank You for enabling me to see the value of wealth. Thank You for enabling me to maintain a proper perspective to wealth and prosperity of every kind. I declare money and wealth will be a tool for me to use as a means of blessings and enlarging Your Kingdom. In Jesus’ name, Amen!”
