Job 22:29 – 30

“When men are cast down, then you shall say, “There is a lifting up”, and He shall save the humble person. He shall deliver the island of the innocent and it is delivered by the pureness of your hand.” Job 22:29-30

Having come to a personal and intimate knowledge of Christ, learning that He is our defense and hope, honing our life of prayer and understanding the power of our words, we are now in a position to be a great blessing to others! “Blessed be the God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted of God.” (2 Corinthians 1:3-4).

To enjoy the benefits of salvation without in turn helping and blessing others should be cause of great concern. We have been blessed to bless. “And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing.” (Genesis 12:2)

Your life, dear Christian, is intended to offer comfort and encouragement, help and hope, healing and deliverance, mercy and forgiveness to those outside of the Saviour’s love. As bearers of His love we can say to those in despair – “there is a lifting up! – there is hope and help in Jesus’ name!” It will be seen – the glory and power of God working in the lives of others, delivering them from darkness, “by the pureness of your hand.”

And Jesus said, “You are the light of the world!” (Matthew 5:14).

Be on the look out today for those you can encourage!
