Job 29:4

“...When the secret of God was upon my tent.” Job 29:4

There is a time of visitation – a time when the Spirit of God’s manifest presence in our lives is tangible! Here is when His words are freely heard and our hearts have an unusual openness to the things of the Spirit. Of course, as the believer grows in the grace of God and in this way, there is an ever deepening sense and knowledge of the Lord’s abiding presence, but this is not that of which we now speak. As there are seasons in the natural realm there are times and seasons in the realm of the Spirit. Wisdom enables us to discern these times, and thus, we are better able to flow with God’s heart and His purpose.

“The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him, and He will show them His covenant.” (Psalm 25:14)

So it is that the fear of God produces not only a righteous and holy living, but it positions us to receive from the Lord revelation of His covenant which in turn releases upon us the manifold blessings of salvation! As a young man, Job had stood in this place and cultivated his walk with God, no wonder then he was such a righteous and “perfect man”, full of the spiritual and material blessings of God.

Now then, the question falls to us – is “the secret of God upon our tents?” Are we daily living under the blessing and revelation of His covenant?

“Father, I believe I receive from You a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Christ! Thank You for opening my eyes of understanding that I might be enlightened to better know the hope of Your calling and Your glory of inheritance among the saints, and what is Your exceeding power toward us who believe! In Jesus, Amen! (Ephesians 1:17-19)
