Jonah 1:2

“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before Me.” Jonah 1:2

Human thought is, while believing itself to be magnanimous and enlightened, in fact, narrow and selfish. Secular humanism’s current popular teaching perpetrates the lie that what one does behind closed doors is no body else’s business, nor does such actions done in the privacy of ones own life have any affect upon their public lives or performances.

Wrong!

Your sin, no matter how well concealed, no matter how private, affects others and is seen in Heaven’s court. The Psalmist makes this clear as he cries out to God for the forgiveness of his sins of murder and adultery. “Against You, You only have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight...” (Psalm 51:4).

Let us give heart felt praise and thanksgiving. For God has made Him “Who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Christ.” (2 Corinthians 5:21). Our lives once full of sin and seen as such in Heaven, are now made righteous and holy before our God now giving us confident and bold access to Heaven’s ear – uncondemned and unashamed!

Alleluia!
