Jonah 2:9 – 10

“I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving – I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.” Jonah 2:9

To Him Who is the eternal Word – which can never be broken; what would be a better sacrifice than keeping your own word! (John 1:1; 10:35). In this modern culture where agreements must have signature upon signature and notary’s seal upon “further proofs” that you are who you say you are, is it any wonder then that the paying of our vows is seen as a burden rather than as a duty?

When you became a Christian, in essence, you said before the Lord, “My life is no longer my own. Your will Father be done in my life as it pleases You. I’ll turn from my lustful desires and live wholly and holy unto You, through the power of Jesus’ life and His indwelling Spirit’s enablement!”

“You are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.” (1 Corinthians 6:20).

Remember then your vows. He has fulfilled completely His part. As you fulfill your vows in His strength expect to see His salvation manifest quickly.

“And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out on dry land.” (Jonah 2:10)
