Jonah 3:10

“And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil ways; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.” Jonah 3:10

What untold blessing waits your full and heart felt repentance? What tragedies will be averted because of your obedience to God’s Spirit? It is not a popular topic in the religious world, but it remains a reality of spiritual truth – “Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD.” (Psalm 33:12).

The historical evidence is clear and it testifies to the Scripture’s validity. Those nations and people who have turned from their wicked ways and have embraced Christianity are blessed above other nations who stubbornly cling to false gods and human ideologies.

And so it is for the individual as well, “Beloved, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers.” (3 John 2). Why does it seem strange? Serve the Lord and be blessed. Refuse to serve Him and experience the curse. This is not “rocket science” but an immutable truth born out in practical day to day living.

“Create in me a clean heart O God...” (Psalm 51:10)
