

“The LORD, Whom you are seeking shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the Covenant.” Malachi 3:1

No matter how long the wait has been, when Jesus, the Messenger of the Covenant, decides to reveal Himself, it is a “suddenly!” Revelations come in this manner. Epiphanies burst on the scene in a flash of wonder! It is the nature of God’s Kingdom invading our natural world. There is such a shift of thinking – such a changing in view point, such a paradigm of concept that no matter how gradually we may have been inching toward this moment, when the moment arrives its radiance dances into our lives with high octane energy – and nothing is ever the same again!

“Lord Jesus, we cry out today for your invasion into our lives! Come Lord God and impact us! Transform us! Take us to the next levels of Your purposes and plans! Lord, we wait with expectancy and longing! Manifest Your Kingdom’s wonder and the force of Your covenant. Through us make a difference in this world. Reshape our present culture and enable us to leave a Kingdom mark upon our culture and society – not to mention eternity! In Jesus’ name, Amen!”
