

“I am the LORD, I change not...” Malachi 3:6

It is an evidence of His God-hood! He is the sure foundation stone, the immovable rock of salvation, the anchor of our souls. His Word abides forever and endures men’s attempts at discrediting it and their mockery of it. His love is ever and never ending!

As men are swayed by their emotions and moved by fads and pop culture, He yet remains steadfast. “Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever!” (Hebrews 13:8). As men’s sentiments change and attitudes are affected by temporal things, He remains “the Father of lights, with Whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.” (James 1:17).

And what of you friend? Have you and are you learning to hold fast to His Word? Is His Word the determining factor in life or do you find yourself being tossed this way and then that way by the whims of others, the reports of the news media, or the findings of science so called?

“Father, it is comforting to know that You will not change! Your character, Your love, Your plan for me consistent. Though my entire world may be in turmoil and in a state of constant flux, I have no fear of Your attitude toward me changing. I am the beloved of God! Thank You. Alleluia!”
