

“They will be My people”, says the LORD Almighty. On the day when I act, they will be My own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient and dutiful child.” Malachi 3:17

Let’s be honest, most believers don’t think about themselves in this way, do they? “God special treasure? Me? I’m not very special!” But then again, we are called to live by faith not by our own emotions or even by our own assessment of ourselves! (1 Corinthians 4:3 – 4). God had concluded us lost in sin before we were ready to face the facts and admit that we were sinners. Once we agreed with God concerning our sin and then trusted His solution we were born again into His family! And now, we too must agree with Him concerning our “special treasure status!” “Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.” (Malachi 3:18).

Yes, it is difficult at times to discern who is a believer and who is an imitation. However, such eternal verdicts are not ours to decide. Make sure your heart is right and that you are found serving God with your whole being. There is coming a Day – a Day in which all will be revealed – a Day in which our God’s “special treasures” will be openly seen by all!

“Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.” (1 Corinthians 4:5).

“I am God’s special treasure! Created in Christ Jesus as a special work of art, I am a work of God’s own design and fashioned for specific good deeds that I might show forth His glory and majesty! Alleluia!” Thank You Lord!” (Ephesians 2:10).
