Micah 1:3

“For, behold, the LORD comes forth out of His place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.” Micah 1:3

The Church, as well as all of creation, is eagerly awaiting the return of Jesus Christ to the earth. (Romans 8:18 – 25). It is our Blessed Hope. (Titus 2:13). At His return He will tread down the high places – every high thing that exalts itself against all reason and His glorious Majesty! (2 Corinthians 10:3 – 5).

And so, while we eagerly await this “setting in order” of all things, we must assume our place within the Body of Christ and take up positions in Spirit-led prayer and Spirit-anointed action that “treads upon the high places” in the now! “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” (Ephesians 6:12).

“Now, you are the body of Christ, and members individually.” (1 Corinthians 12:27).. Until Jesus physically returns to the earth and until He personally and finally “treads upon the high places” it is our responsibility and duty to proclaim His coming Kingdom until He does return.

Personally – make sure there are no “high places” in your life or attitudes.

Prayer – make sure you are standing faithfully upon your watch.

Proclamation – make sure you are ready in season and out of season to tell forth the Good News of Jesus Christ and His coming Kingdom.

Projects – make sure you are serving others in your church and in your community.
