Micah 6:1

“Arise, plead your case before the mountain, and let the hill hear your voice.” Micah 6:1

Obstacles face every person. Your difficulties may be specific to you but they are not unique to mankind as a whole. We are all together in the “same soup” so to speak. (1 Corinthians 10:13; 1 Peter 5:9).

When tempting Jesus, the devil took Him up to an “exceeding high mountain.” It was Satan’s intent to stop the Kingdom of God’s manifestation through Jesus! (Matthew 4:8). And Jesus, armed with the same spiritual weapons God has placed at your disposal, overcame those mountains of temptation and obstacles to His success and then He went on to fulfill the will of God completely!

“Then he answered and spoke unto me, saying, “This is the Word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit”, says the LORD of hosts. “Who art you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, “Grace, grace unto it.” (Zechariah 4:6 – 7).

It may sound silly to the natural mind, but this is how the worlds are intended to be governed and operated – by the Word of God issuing forth from the mouth of the believer! Jesus quoting from this Old Testament prophet makes it clear – “For I say unto you, “Whosoever shall say to this mountain, “Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says shall come to pass, he shall have whatever he says.” (Mark 11:23).

It’s your turn... Arise in Jesus’ name and let your mountains, obstacles, and difficulties hear your voice of faith!

“O mountain, in Jesus’ name, I’m speaking to you...”
