

“He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.” Micah 6:8

Don't complicate Christian service. Read the Word of God and obey it. Pray and listen for the voice of the Spirit and then do what He says!¹ Stay in Christian fellowship – such is the source of encouragement, strength, and accountability. Remember, we don't learn what is right and just by our culture but rather we learn what is right and just by God's standards found within His Word.

Love what God loves! Hate what God hates! Be quick to forgive... extend mercy readily for the measure of mercy that you measure to others will be the standard of mercy that you will experience in your own life!

A servant walks with his master in a manner that is submissive to his lord's will. A son walks with his father in the same manner, yet deeply united by not only blood but hopefully by a growing and deepening relationship.

The Lord is extending an invitation for you today to walk with Him. But the acceptance of this invitation will cost you something – “if any many will come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.” (Matthew 16:24).

Let's review...

Do justly...

Love mercy...

Walk humbly with your God...

¹ The voice of the Spirit of God will never be independent of the Word of God but will rather confirm and agree with the Scriptures.

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com