The Prophetic Books

Micah 7:18

“Where is another God like You, Who pardons the sins of the survivors among His people? You cannot stay angry with Your people forever, because You delight in showing mercy.” Micah 7:18

“Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.” (Psalm 85:10). Men may have once looked at God’s mercy as a tenuous thing, but once He came of the scene in person – bearing our sin personally and thus allowing Himself to be subjected to the same penalty for that sin which all men must face though He was totally and completely innocent – there can no longer be any doubts. Yahweh delights in showing mercy! “But God commends His love toward us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8).

It is imperative that you receive this “mercy triumphing over judgment” that God the Father extends to you. Such mercy cost God everything. Such extravagant demonstration of mercy demands we respond accordingly. Such mercy is found only in the Son! “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, has begotten us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” (1 Peter 1:3).

Three things for this day – First, receive the Father’s mercy afresh for this day. Secondly, extend the mercy you’ve received to someone else in Jesus’ Name! Finally, give Him thanks for the mercy He has already extended to you today!
