

“When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul, discretion shall preserve you, and understanding shall keep you, to deliver you...” Proverbs 2:10 – 12a

When wisdom comes into your heart – you know it! It is practical in its workings. It is not just for religious things. The Spirit of the Lord moves in us and among us not to just make us better fit on Sunday mornings, but in everyday living! Actually, we need wisdom’s manifestation more in our day to day living than we need in our Sunday morning church times!

But thank God, we don’t have to choose, wisdom is available 24/7/365¹ in any situation, under any circumstance! Anyone can hear about such things, “amen” such things, and even act as if they are living out these things, but when real life is staring you in the face – it is in this moment you need wisdom to enter your heart with the answers!

Wisdom and knowledge that have issued forth from the mind and Spirit of God are pleasant to the soul. They bring with them not a temporary self satisfaction of man’s wisdom or experience; rather they bring the “peaceable fruits of righteousness.” (James 3:18). God’s wisdom brings understanding into everyday life. It reveals the plans of evil without soiling the heart. It marks the path of escape from sin and temptation without harming others. Such discretion guards you and will ultimately deliver you – if only you will allow wisdom her entrance into your heart!

“Lord, in Your name, I welcome wisdom! Thank You for discretion and understanding in all my dealings before men. Thank You for preserving and delivering me from every snare and device of the wicked one.”
