

“But the path of the just is like the shining light, that shines more and more unto the perfect day.” Proverb 4:18

Life is often cloudy and we see only partially. “For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then, face to face; now I know in part, but then shall I know even as I am known.” (1 Corinthians 13:12). For the Christian, we are not hindered by this cloudiness as some are hindered, for our seeing is by faith. We may not know the details of our pilgrimage, but we do know the final destination. We will arrive in the Father’s house! “Jesus said unto him, “I am the way, the truth, the life, no man comes to the Father, but by Me...” (John 14:6). The condition of our character upon our arrival at the Father’s house is also known. “Beloved, now we are the children of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.” (1 John 3:2). We are going – not just to heaven – but to the Father’s very presence and upon our arrival we will be just like Jesus!

Your life may be very cloudy, rainy or even stormy today. But take encouragement in knowing that the path set before you is growing brighter and brighter until that Perfect Day when you will awake in the Father’s presence with the likeness and image of Jesus!

Until then, my Son, no matter how dark the moment in life may appear – stay in the Word – for it is “a lamp unto your feet, and a light unto your path.” (Psalm 119:105).

“I boldly confess today that I am found in Christ! He is my light and He is my salvation. My path is growing brighter and brighter unto the Perfect Day. I am walking in the light as He is in the light and therefore I have fellowship with Him and with my Christian family and the blood of Jesus is constantly cleansing me of all sin! (1 John 1:7). While not perfect yet, I am being perfected and one day – on that Great Day – I will awake with His likeness! Alleluia!”
