

“My son, attend to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Let them not depart from your eyes. Keep them in the midst of your heart. For they are life to those that find them, and health to all their flesh.” Proverbs 4:20 – 22

My son; pay attention to God’s Word! Give yourself to it, as if you were a servant to a king, paying careful observation to his every want and obeying his every wish.

My son; incline your ear to the Word – that is, lower your head – humble yourself to the authority of the Scripture acknowledging that it is the wisdom and life you need to navigate this world’s treacherous waters.

My son; let not the Word depart from your eyes. Fix your gaze upon Jesus, the Eternal Word. He is the standard, the hope and the confidence for your living.

My son; keep God’s Word in your heart. For out of your heart will flow the issues of life – literally the very forces of life – those forces that will produce God’s blessing and destiny in your life. It’s simply, what you put in your heart will be what issues out of your heart.

My son; God’s Word is life – for Jesus is the Word! His Word will be medicine, health and strength to your body, your soul, your finances, and your family!

My son; take the Word, believe the Word, speak the Word, obey the Word, live the Word!

“Father, I am inclining, I’m submitting to Your Word, and I have a great expectation that it will utterly and completely transform me and how I live!”
