

“Drink waters out of your own cistern, and running waters out of your own well.”
Proverbs 5:15

The apostle John was very certain about it... “But the anointing which you received of Him abides in you, and you need not that any man teach you, but as the same anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it has taught you, you shall abide in Him. (1 John 2:27).

“Lord, thank You for the indwelling Anointing that instructs me in all things.”

This inward Witness – the Holy Spirit – has been given to every Christian that we might know and experience the things of God! (1 Corinthians 2; John 16). The believer has been uniquely gifted and blessed of God with the gift of the Holy Spirit. While this Gift does not preclude our need for others in the body of Christ to teach us (Ephesians 4:11; 1 Corinthians 12), the Spirit of God not only teaches us but He enables us to know and discern between truth and deception.

Watch out for the mistake of being over dependant upon others for your own walk with God. Learn to “drink waters out of your own cistern.” Receiving counsel from others has its place in our lives. Being taught by godly men and women is valuable to our Christian growth, but our reliance and dependence must be upon the Lord Jesus alone. He is our Singular Source of life and the Sustaining of that life.

“Lord Jesus, drawing waters from You is my desire – waters that are sure and true; waters that are pure and life giving. Teach me to be confident in hearing Your voice and knowing Your leading. Acquaint me once again with the wonderful indwelling Anointing of God.”
