

“A false balance is an abomination to the LORD, but a just weight is His delight.”
Proverbs 11:1

To cheat someone over a few grams of flour reveals the true depravity and unbelief that resides in the soul of mankind. What is really being weighed here is the human heart!

“And this is the writing that was written,

MENE
TEKEL
UPHARSIN

“This is the interpretation of the thing –

MENE – God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it.
TEKEL – You are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.
PERES – Your kingdom is divided and given to others.”

(Daniel 5:25 – 28)

Better to have your heart weighed as righteous and make an honest profit than gain a few pennies and be found out as a thief!

Son, are there areas in your life that you use a false weight? Could there be areas where you judge one person by one standard and another person by a different standard? Always endeavor to judge by the Word of God and that by the Spirit’s compassionate voice! Selah! Think about that!

“Grace me Lord. Grace me to judge myself. (1 Corinthians 11:31). Grace me to love the truth.(2 Thessalonians 2:10; 1 John 3:18) Grace me to judge with righteous judgments. (John 7:24).”
