

“...the wealth of the sinner is laid for the just.” Proverbs 13:22b

If you are found trusting in Christ, it’s all coming to you! The wealth of the world and its system is coming to you! The kingdoms of this world are coming to you! You stand now as an inheritor of this world with all of its vast resources and supply! “Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth.” (Matthew 5:5)

At this moment men are labouring to store up wealth for you. It may sound greedy and even arrogant, but it is merely the truth. “...but to the sinner He give travail to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God.” (Ecclesiastes 2:26b) One day it is all coming to you!

The great majority of God’s promises – while to be fully realized at a future time and in a different setting – Heaven and a New Earth – are also intended, albeit to a somewhat lesser degree, to be possessed in the now! “According as His divine power has given unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness...” (2 Peter 1:3). The determining factor in whether these promises are manifest now or at some future point in time – maybe even after our death – is the exercise of the measure of faith we possess. (Romans 12:3). All progress in the Christian life is by faith and so; all progress in this life as well must be attained by faith. Our justification by faith and our access to God’s abundant provision is by that same faith. (Romans 5:1 – 2).

Possessing our possessions – those things rightfully given to us by our Father – implies the prerequisite of the possessions not possessing us! “Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33). Setting our heart upon the Lord and His purposes positions us to be the beneficiaries of every promise! “Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together and running over, shall men give to you.” (Luke 6:38).

Now or later – it’s coming your way! Therefore, set your affections upon Him.
