

“As the sparrow escapes, and the swallow flies away, so the undeserved curse will never hit its mark.” Proverbs 26:2 Jerusalem

Curses are real.

Curses operate in lives and wreak havoc – sometimes from generation to generation. They often march onward unchecked year after year and life after life. They pass from father to son to grandson. They spare neither gender nor age, neither rich nor poor, neither color nor nationality.

Loosed in the Garden at Adam’s rebellion and fall, curses ravage lives, wielding their grief and pain, working their hopelessness and sorrow. But there is a barrier; an agent that demands the curse be removed! It is the Cross of Calvary where the Saviour paid the price for mankind’s sin and rebellion. “Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, cursed is everyone that hangs upon a tree; that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.” (Galatians 3:13 – 14)

Are you found in Jesus Christ today?

Faith in His name will free you from generations of curses. His blood will avail where all human effort and strength fail. Raise the standard! Call upon that Name which is above all names – “The curse may not alight here! For this heart and life is now holy ground – bought and purchased for Jesus’ sake and glory! Amen! So be it done, in Jesus’ name and authority!”

Say it aloud – “In Jesus’ name – Curse reverse!”
