

Psalm 2

The Psalmist – “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together against the LORD, and against His anointed...”

The Rebels – “Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.”

The Psalmist – “He that sits in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision. Then shall He speak to them in His wrath, and vex them in His sore displeasure.”

Yahweh – “Yet have I set My King upon My holy hill of Zion.”

The Anointed One – “I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto Me, You are My Son; this day have I begotten You.

Yahweh – “Ask of Me, and I shall give You the heathen for Your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Your possession. You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.”

The Psalmist – “Be wise now therefore, O kings: be instructed judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest He be angry and you then perish from the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in Him!”

Selah!

What is your part in this galactic play? Are you like the psalmist warning the rebels and calling the lost to know Christ? Or have you hardened your heart and joined the insurrection of the rebels? There is still time, repent and trust Messiah.
