

“Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Your possession.” Psalm 2:8

The Father has promised His Son Jesus, an inheritance gathered from out of all the nations. “... great multitudes, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindred, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes...” (Revelation 7:9) As “heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ” (Romans 8:17), we too, are destined to inherit the nations!

Obedience then, to Jesus’ final command to “Go, therefore, and teach (disciple) all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.” (Matthew 28:19-20), is both indicative of our love for Him, and is also a personal reminder we are called to labour in the “family business.”

As a rightful heir, what have you asked of the Lord for your inheritance? A wise son will ask for that which has lasting value. Lift your eyes and your thinking from the material, earthly things and set your heart upon the souls of those who inhabit the nations. Whether your neighbor or a nation, be bold in your request, and be unrelenting, for it is the Lord Who has commanded you to “Ask of Me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance.”

“Lord, today I ask of You on behalf of Please bring them to repentance and faith in Christ. Send labourers of the Gospel across their path, cause the gifts of the Spirit to flow, fill my mouth with Your testimonies, and thank You Lord for boldness to be an effective witness for Jesus!”
