

“The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.” Psalm 14:1

All creation stands as immutable evidence of the wonder and glory of the Creator. The fool’s denial of God is merely an outward manifestation of his internal strife and rebellion toward God. To admit to the existence of God demands then that he submit his life to this One Who has created the worlds and is the ultimate Master of his soul. The fool attempts to deny the Creator His sovereign right to govern in the affairs of His creation, but his denial in no way voids either God’s inherent right or His will to rule.

Such denial progressively leads the fool to greater darkness of thought and lifestyle. “Because when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.” (Romans 1:21-22). As this darkness grows ever deeper, the fool’s attack on a Being Who is “non-existent” become all the more adamant and hateful.

Now, there are many today who deny that there is a God. Is this because they are like the fool who has chosen to defy the living God, or is it because they have been lied to by those fools whose crusade it is to disprove the Creator’s existence?

Your task then friend is to live in such a way as to allow no offense for the sake of the Gospel, and to be ready to share the reason for the hope that is in you. (1 Peter 3:15).

God wants all men to be saved – yes, even those who don’t believe in Him!

“Father, today I pray for... that they come to personal faith and trust in Your Son, Jesus Christ. In Jesus’ name, I bind the spirit of blindness that keeps them from seeing the Crucified and Risen One.” (2 Corinthians 4:4).
