

“The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament shows His handiwork.” Psalm 19:1

The Creator has signed His work! It has His autograph boldly emblazoned across the canvas. To miss His mark is to take a detour around the truth and to become lost in the quagmire of man’s arrogance and defiance – whereby he gives glory to his own theories and offers a counterfeit name for the true Author! (Academia should be outraged! To take credit for someone else’s work is called plagiarism!)

The order of the universe demands a Creator. Its meticulous workings are seen in the eclipse, the tides, and the protecting influence of the earth’s magnetic fields, to the intricacies of the eye or the brain not to mention the human genome.

Yes, there is a signature clearly evident! “God, Who at sundry times and in diverse manner spoke in times past unto the Father by the prophets has in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things, by whom He has made the worlds...” (Hebrew 1:1-2)

The heaven’s bear witness and our hearts confirm even what at times our heads may not grasp. The Eyewitness to creation whispers within our hearts, “Before all of this was, I AM.” And it is in this Voice that ever speaks to His highest creation – the sons of men – and He invites us to know Him personally and intimately through Jesus Christ.

“Ah, Lord God! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm, and there is nothing too difficult for You!” (Jeremiah 32:17)

“Lord, I believe! What an awesome Creator... Designer... Architect... and Artist You are!”
