

“Unto You will I cry, O LORD, my Rock; be not silent to me, lest, if You are silent, I will become like those who go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry to You. When I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.” Psalm 28:1 – 2

The death of any relationship is first and foremost a death of communications! People drift apart because they have ceased sharing with one another and soon they no longer have anything in common to talk about!

We can never accuse God of not speaking to us. Was it not Adam who hid from the Lord that fateful day in the Garden? Adam’s ability to hear the voice of the Spirit was deeply impaired in one moment of rebellion. His ears were covered over by the hardness of his heart. “Adam, where are you?!” (Genesis 3:9).

Today we often cry to God in the midst of our struggles, but we have spent years in rebellion and selfish living, and we wonder why it seems God does not answer. There is hope – good news – God is speaking clearly today by His Son – Jesus Christ. (Hebrews 1:2; John 10:27) He is speaking to us through His Word.” (Psalm 119:105). He is speaking by the Holy Spirit. (John 16:13-15). He is speaking through His people. (Matthew 18:20; 1 Peter 5:1 – 5).

Are you ready to hear the voice of the Lord? Are you ready to obey – even before He speaks? Pause now to listen for His still small voice...

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.
© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com