

“Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength. Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.”
Psalm 29:1 – 2

The Scriptures teach us to “render therefore, to every person their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Owe no man anything...” (Romans 13:7-8a) How easy it is for a child to take for granted his mother’s loving and tender care, or his father’s daily sacrifice to provide food and shelter. How easy it is to forget the daily labour and hard work of faithful employees. What of the long hours that elected officials spend in serving you and your community? What of the work of teachers, ministers, police, volunteers, and a myriad of others? If we are called upon – no, required by all that is right to render or to give to all that which is due them; what must we owe to our God?

What debt has accrued to our spiritual account? And dare we mention the material benefit the Lord blesses us with that often go unnoticed or unclaimed? It is unchallenged then, isn’t it? Our hearts beat to a resounding “yes”!

“Give Him glory!”

Give Him of your years, your wealth, your talent, your influence.

Yes, give Him of your _____!

As you give Him of your strength, there is a fragrance of worship that surrounds your life and ascends pleasing to the Father.

“Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com