

“You are my hiding place, You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah. I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go; I will guide you with My eye.” Psalm 32:7-8

How good it is to know the mercy and the forgiveness of the Lord! To hide or attempt to cover your sin will exclude you from the secret place of God’s protection and blessings. Conversely, to humbly confess your sin is to have the gates of His presence thrown wide open.

These then are the words of one who has forsaken their sin and is experiencing the Lord’s good hand of blessing. “You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall compass me about with songs of deliverance!” As a mother may comfort her hurting or fearful child with soothing songs that reassure the heart, so the Lord will comfort and encourage His children with “songs of deliverance.”

Selah – pause and give thought to what the Word of God is saying to your heart... Consider. Apply. Bow your head and give thanks!

The Lord’s song of deliverance begins with His reassuring personal word, “I will...”

His promise is to personally help you; to personally stand beside you; to personally instruct and teach you! So don’t be afraid, the Lord says, “I will be there to personally see you through every difficulty of life. I’ll be near by, so close in fact, that you’ll always be able to catch My eye – if you’ll look to Me, you’ll always know what to do!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com