

“The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him, and they deliver him. O taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who trust in Him.” Psalm 34:7-8

A twenty-four hour a day surveillance system, continuous personal protection even from unseen and unsuspecting sources – what would that be worth, especially in today’s crazy and out of control society? In days of such uncertainty and terror the Lord offers His own personal escorts. These guardians take up residence around you – their encampment offers a continuous defense over your family and property. It is in the truest sense of the word – the King’s protection.

As with so many biblical promises this one is conditional. Those who enjoy the Lord’s protection are those who fear Him and hold Him in high reverence or regard. They purposely and readily humble themselves under His hand. There is an awareness of His abiding presence and “if God be for us who can be against us!” (Psalm 91:1; Romans 8:31). Such things are not only comforting but they also demand that we become proactive in our walk with the Lord. We must be aware of His presence both protecting and blessing us.

What an invitation! We are literally invited to experience His protection and blessing first hand. Why only hear of these things when you have now been given a personal invitation to come and experience His goodness first hand?! Whether it be in the midst of a communist riot in South America or passing out Gospel tracts to communist military on their own vehicles – whether it be while walking through the streets of inner city gang invested neighborhoods or while stationed on a far distant land with your country’s military – maybe while you are home at night alone or on a train platform in a strange city surrounded by suspect pickpockets – there is a place of safety for there is an angelic guard surrounding those who will fear the Lord!

“O, taste and see!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com