

“O clap your hands, all you peoples! Shout to God with the voice of triumph! For the LORD Most High is awesome. He is a great King over all the earth.” Psalm 47:1-2

The voice of reason is often louder than the voice of faith. When coupled with unbelief, reason begins to raise its voice and assert its wisdom – so called. In times of such mental battle the saint of God must learn to release his faith in what is called “the shout of the King.” “The Lord, his God, is with him, and the shout of the King is among them.” (Numbers 23:21)

Volume is not the issue, is it? Rather, the inner determination and pluck that arises with the believing heart when unbelief begins to raise its voice and faith is beginning to dim!

Never be polite with unbelief.

Never give unbelief a turn to speak.

Don't wait while it offers its opinion or offers excuses for human inability! “For with God, all things are possible.” (Luke 1:37). To listen to unbelief is to surrender the high ground. To pause in its presence is to risk the grave danger of forfeiting that which is your only means of pleasing the Lord. (Hebrews 11:6).

Yes, there is most definitely a time to raise your faith in a voice of triumph – shouting out God's ability and willingness to act on our behalf!

“SHOUT UNTO GOD WITH A VOICE OF TRIUMPH!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com