

“He that offers praise glorifies Me and will make a way for God to bring the Kingdom into his life.” Psalm 50:23 (German to English translation)

Praise paves the way for God to deliver His Kingdom into our lives. And with that Kingdom’s coming is the full support, blessing and benefit of the King! Praise – living our lives and speaking our words in such a way that pleases God – enables others to see how we live and in this is our God glorified. Such a lifestyle is conducive for the blessing of God chasing us down and overtaking us. (Deut 28:1-14) This is a life that has made the pursuit of God its highest priority. “But seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33).

Now, what does it mean too be “shown the salvation of God”? (Psalm 50:23 KJV) As we know, the word salvation is the all-inclusive word of the Gospel. It literally means deliverance, safety, preservation, healing, and soundness.¹ Is this then not the Kingdom of God in manifestation? When His Kingdom is in open demonstration, the lost are saved, the sick are healed, the bound are delivered, the endangered are preserved, the needy are satisfied.

“Our Father, Who are in heaven, hallowed, praised, adored, blessed is Your Name! Your Kingdom come – and Lord, with its coming thank You for bringing all that I need, to satisfy and complete me – spirit, soul and body! In Jesus’ name! Amen!”
