

“Then I will teach Your ways to sinners, and they will return to You. Forgive me for shedding blood, O God who saves; then I will joyfully sing of Your forgiveness. Unseal my lips, O LORD, that I may praise You.” Psalm 51:13-15 NLT

There is nothing like the liberated soul that is free from its prison of sin and its burden of guilt and condemnation! When once you have experienced the mercy of God found in Jesus Christ and your soul tastes His liberty, your tongue can do nothing else but proclaim His wondrous love! “For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.” (Acts 4:20).

It is this sheer delight in knowing that God loves you and that your sin has been forgiven that causes an exuberant and infectious testimony that the sinner is compelled to hear, if not believe!

And what of your testimony? Is it a living and current thing, or has it become stale like yesterday’s bread? Recounting our past victories is important but they should be used as a spring board from which we can jump into today’s living water. There is something in a new and fresh testimony that has immediacy to it. It is this sort of living witness that catches the attention and hearts of people!

When was the last answer to prayer you experienced? The last person healed because you laid your hands upon them? The last time the Lord released His provision into your life in a specific and supernatural way? What is the last “rhema” or spoken word you heard from the Spirit?

“Lord, may You give me today a fresh and living testimony! In Jesus’ name! Amen!”
