

“Truly my soul waits upon God: from Him cometh my salvation... My soul, wait only upon God; for my expectation is from Him. He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my defense; I shall not be moved. In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.” Psalm 62:1, 5 – 7

Few words create more angst in our modern fast paced and driven culture than the little four letter word – wait! We are a society of instant gratification, demanding everything NOW! From instant coffee to diplomas, we expect maximum benefit – no matter how hollow – for minimum effort – the less effort the better.

The Lord cannot be measured by the standards or patterns of our present day culture. Often within a few minutes of meeting someone in the most common place setting, you soon know far more information about their life than you may even have cared to know. We are an interesting people. At times almost reclusive, yet willing to talk to a complete stranger and share intimate details of our private lives with them!

To come to a personal and intimate relationship with the Lord however requires we learn to wait for Him. Any hurry or anxiousness within our heart is a clear indicator we, on some level, are unsure if the Lord will really “come through” for us or not.

We are called to live by faith and waiting is a test of that faith!.

“You have need of patience, that after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.” (Hebrews 10:36).

Have you learned to wait on God or do you run to others looking for that which can only come from Him. Are you in too much of a hurry to wait?!
