

“By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us, O God of our salvation, You Who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of the far off seas.” Psalm 65:5

Our God is too small! At least our concept of Him is too small. We have relegated His abilities to our smallness of thought which has in turn stifled the workings of our faith.

The Psalmist casts off every form of unbelief and his bold prayer penetrates the heavens and as well convicts us of such small thinking that is so spiritually stunted when He declares, “The God who saved me, will answer my prayer in such a way that will demonstrate to the world that He is the Sovereign Lord of all Creation and that I am His child!” Hey! Hey! Hey!

Awesome deeds! Terrible acts in righteousness! Such remarkable deeds will astonish us and leave us breathless with wonder. Awesome deeds will hold us spellbound, surprise us, and be beyond the miraculous in their working. At once, awesome deeds may dazzle us and electrify us. It is difficult to imagine what an awesome deed is, because by its very definition it is beyond our ability to comprehend. “Now to Him Who, by (in consequence of) the [action of His] power that is at work within us, is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly, far over and above all that we [dare] ask or think—ininitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes or dreams.” (Ephesians 3:20 Amplified)

Faith knows to be true and possible what the mind cannot grasp or believe. Faith holds a confidence in God that the intellect wrestles with because it doesn't understand how God can do something it doesn't comprehend. (Pride by any other name is still pride!)

Let us, along with the Psalmist, be bold and dare cry out for such awesome deeds in righteousness! “Lord, go ahead, demonstrate Yourself in the earth! Act on the behalf of Your people! Reveal Your Glory as in days of old! Hear our cry and answer us with the awesomeness of Your right hand! In the name of Jesus, Who is Your Right Hand, we confidently and expectantly pray! Amen!”
