

“How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings. They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house. And You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures. For with You is the fountain of life – In Your light we see light.” Psalm 36:7-9

In a time when it appears that men are faithful only to their own lust and want, the covenant faithfulness (lovingkindness) of the Lord grows all the more precious to us. The consistent and unvarying faithfulness of the Lord provides us a sure refuge from the storms of life.

The Lord has stocked His house with abundance of all that we could imagine or desire. There is an overflowing fullness in all that He does. Generosity drips from Him. His preparations are full, complete and abundant. The shelves of His kitchen’s pantry are replete with all the heart could want or imagine. “Now unto Him Who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all we could ask or pray...” (Ephesians 3:20a).

And in His house there is a constant flow of joy and goodness. His is an unending source and supply of delight and goodness because He is the center of all activity and is enjoyed by all those present. (Psalm 16:11)

If this is not enough, we find at His table the fountain of life and we begin to see all things clearly!

“Father, I worship You because of Your covenant faithfulness!

“Father, I praise You because of Your vast provision and supply lavished upon my life daily!

“Father, I exalt Your name as the Source and Provider of all that which I have need!”
