

“Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered; let them also that hate Him flee before Him.” Psalm 68:1

Few things are more stirring than the fanfare of a strong brass section in an orchestra or marching band! The bright call of the trumpets and response of the horns and lower winds stirs the heart and the imagination! It is as if there is a direct connection between our hearts and the musical call of the horns! No doubt that the Spirit has created the connection, for the Last Trumpet call will bring forth the dead in Christ! “Behold, I show you a mystery – we shall not all sleep, but we shall be changed. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the Last Trumpet; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” (1 Corinthians 15:51-52)

This psalm begins with the cry that would issue forth in the camp of Israel when they were dwelling in the wilderness. As the Ark and glory of God would begin to move, the watchmen would sound the trumpet and this cry would go forth, “Let God arise and His enemies be scattered...”

As maybe no other time in history the Spirit of God and His glory is on the move in the earth – and yet how easily we become distracted from the issue at hand – we must follow the Presence of God wholeheartedly!

“Lord, our prayer is to have ears so turned to the call of Your Spirit’s voice that we will follow You as You arise and move throughout the world today! Arise, O Lord, and scatter Your enemies! Cause the wicked to flee from before You, uncover their plans that all may clearly see Your love demonstrated upon the Cross of Calvary. Lord, I desire to be the sound of a trumpet of God – an able witness, ever pointing others to Jesus! Amen.”
