

“Save me, O God, for the floodwaters are up to my neck. Deeper and deeper I sink into the mire; I can't find a foothold to stand on. I am in deep water, and the floods overwhelm me. I am exhausted from crying for help; my throat is parched and dry. My eyes are swollen with weeping, waiting for my God to help me.” Psalm 69:1 – 3 NLT

Overwhelmed for you!

Jesus was willingly overwhelmed by the raging waters of sin – your sin!

His sinless soul was mired in the foulest of human vice. Swirling around Him the vilest of hell's worst. And all the while He waited on God. “For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.” (Hebrews 4:15).

Alleluia!

Jesus was assaulted for you! He endured what no other has ever endured or could have ever suffered – and He did it all for you!

And all the while He waited on His Father God.

“For He has made Him, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.” (2 Corinthians 5:21).

Life's waters may easily overwhelm us. The intent of such waters is to drown you. Why then insist on braving these waters by yourself? Why reason and attempt to devise your own escape? Wait on God! He has traversed these waters. He has bridged the flow! The resurrection of Jesus Christ is God's mark of assurance for us that He has overcome the world and that He now willingly and openly offers you a lifeline!

Wait, I say, on God!

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com