

“I will meditate also of all Your work, and talk of Your doings. Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary; who is as great a God as our God?” Psalm 77:12 – 13

As a child boasting in her father or a wife in her husband or a mother in her son – so the Psalmist invites us to come and boast in the Lord our God! To meditate upon His works will eventually invite our mouths to overflow with His praise! “For we cannot but speak the things we have seen and heard.” (Acts 4:20). To speak of His greatness fosters not only our faith in Him but it stirs others to trust in Christ as well. “That the communication of your faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.” (Philemon 6).

The testimony offered, the boast in God made, brings a certain immediacy to our faith. He is not a god who is far off, but He is a very present help in our troubles. There is a divine interest concerning our lives that invites and draws Him to be close at hand – intimately involving Himself with such creatures as us! Even though the Lord is a “hands-on” Being – One Who takes no interest in being merely a spectator, but wants to be intimately involved in our lives – we too often hold a misconception of where He intends to reveal Himself.

While the heavens reveal His glory; and the ministry and service of the Church focuses upon His goodness – His way is in meeting with us individually in the sanctuary of our hearts! As He searched for and called for Adam in the Garden, or sought out Abraham, as He revealed Himself to Mary and then to the Disciples – so today He is desirous of your knowing Him “in the sanctuary.”

“Lord Jesus, welcome!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.fearegod.com