

“I am the LORD your God, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt; open your mouth wide and I will fill it.” Psalm 81:10

A living faith – an up-to-date faith – a faith that is in daily contact and communion with the Lord, speaks! And it speaks for this reason – because God is always actively at work in that life where faith is dynamic and not static.

First, there is the simple telling forth of what God has done in the heart, an acknowledging of the change that has transpired within. “That the fellowship of your faith may become effectual by the acknowledgment of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. (Philemon 6)).

Secondly, there is the acknowledging of those things that the Lord is doing in the now within your life... a ready and willing, maybe even more, an expectant and aggressive telling forth of those things you have and are currently experiencing! “We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.” (Acts 4:20). It is not a forced or coerced telling, but an overflow of the goodness of God operating within our lives.

And finally, this overflow of the heart that is experiencing God’s goodness is a way of life. “We having the same spirit of faith, according, as it is written, “I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak, knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.” (2 Corinthians 4:13-14).

Be quick to tell of the deliverance and blessings of the Lord within your life. Be bold in your telling – “Open your mouth wide and I will fill it,” says the Lord.”

Pray for opportunities to tell forth the goodness of God. Be wise, be bold, and be expectant!
