

“Righteousness and justice are the habitation of Your throne; mercy and truth shall go before Your face. Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance. In Your name shall they rejoice all the day, and in Your righteousness shall they be exalted.” For You are the glory of their strength; and in Your favour our horn shall be exalted.” Psalm 89:14 – 17

Those who have drawn near to the Lord are primarily recipients of His attributes, but they also have access to the overflow of His provisions.

Having heard the “joyful sound” we have come to know the happiness, the blessedness of the message of the Good News of Christ!

Having drawn near to Him, we now are blessed because we no longer stumble in darkness, but “walk, O Lord, in the light of Your face.”

Having been released from sin and guilt by believing upon the Name, we now know genuine jubilation for it is a “joy unspeakable and full of glory.” Also knowing that “there is no other name given among men whereby we must be saved”, we become bold and confident in our witness to His name! (Acts 4:13).

Having been now made “the righteousness of God in Christ” through Jesus’ work at Calvary; we too, may now experience and enjoy the exaltation of walking as the children of God!

And finally, having been chosen of God we now may understand the favour of God working in our lives to both exalt Jesus and to bless us!

“Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound!”
