Psalm 92:10

“I shall be anointed with fresh oil.” Psalm 92:10

As the Israelites could not “save” manna except on the sixth day (in anticipation for their meals on the Sabbath day), so we need a fresh anointing daily to serve Christ to others. How easy it is to live off of yesterday’s revelations, yesterday’s miracles, and yesterday’s rituals! But ask yourself, “How much real life is to be found in yesterday’s stuff anyway?” Now don’t refuse or confuse our need to heed advice from our elders or the experience we’ve gained through the years. Neither forget that yesterday’s testimonies when quickened by the Holy Spirit can bring new life to the hurting today, but neither forget that human wisdom or past experience, still doesn’t hold the answer that a fresh touch from the Lord holds!

The anointing of God’s Spirit will put you over in life when the best wisdom of men will only bring temporary solutions. The day in which we are living – days where men’s hearts are failing them for fear – are days in which we need – desperately need – a fresh anointing. We need a fresh anointing of power to face the terrors and diseases of the end of the age. We need a fresh anointing to pierce the cultural darkness and humanism that is prevailing in so many places. We need a fresh anointing to release us into the mind and faith of the Son of God. We need a fresh anointing to free us from the soulish and selfishness of our own living!

To have really fresh bread, you must visit the bakery early every day. It is no different with the precious Anointing of God. Sure, you can eat day old bread and it will nourish, but sons, there is nothing like that bread which is hot out of the oven!

The Lord’s bakery is open. Why settle for day old? Come and eat – come and receive His fresh anointing for all you face today!

“Lord, I am hungry for the fresh anointing, the fresh Word, the fresh moving of Your Spirit! Thank You for a Now word!”
