Psalm 102:18, 20b

“This shall be written for the generation to come; and the people who shall be created shall praise the LORD... to loose those that are appointed to death.” Psalm 102:18, 20b.

Man was created to know God. He was created to experience and know the wonders of Heaven. The creation and existence of hell was for the devil; it was never intended for Adam’s race. When Adam exchanged kingdoms and submitted himself and all his progeny to the horrors of a satanic father, he unwittingly altered our collective destiny as well.

“But God...”

Created to praise the Lord – “Thou art worthy, O LORD, to receive glory and honour and power; for You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created.” (Revelation 4:11). The Lord Jesus Christ is not only Creator Blessed, but Redeemer Divine! His creation now fallen must now also become His new creation redeemed! Those created and appointed to praise Him must now be loosed from the sentence of eternal death that sin and rebellion have worked in them.

“Only God...”

We who were dead in sin – we who were lost in self – we who were bound by the devil – Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners.” (1 Timothy 1:15). He came to loose us from the appointed death of sin and the destiny of hell. He endured the unendurable that we might experience the “joy that is unspeakable and full of glory.” (1 Peter 1:8).

“Thanks be to God...”
