Psalm 105:8

“He has remembered His covenant forever...” Psalm 105:8

The Lord has not forgotten one of His promises! “Verily, I say unto you, “Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall not pass away from the law, until all be fulfilled.” (Matthew 5:18). It is far too easy for men to forget what they say or promise, but the Lord “has remembered His covenant forever!”

We, as believers, are in a good place. Jesus “is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.” (Hebrew 8:6). A better covenant established upon better promises; can it be true? Let’s quickly look at some of the old covenant promises and then raise our expectations, shall we?

Psalm 105:24 – He increased His people, and made them stronger than their enemies!

Psalm 105:25-36 – He gave them miracles in the midst of trials.

Psalm 105:37 – He made them rich and healthy!

Psalm 105:39 – He spread His wings over them both day and night offering them His manifest presence to both guide and protect.

Psalm 105:40-43 – He provided abundance for their every need.

Psalm 105:44 – They inherited the nations as a possession.

Psalm 105:45 – They were a special people destined to show forth His wonder and majesty.

And now, let us better comprehend the New Covenant, established upon better promises, sealed by the blood of the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ!

“Lord Jesus, may we never allow Your work at Calvary go unappreciated or unappropriated!”
