Psalm 110:3

“Thy people shall be willing in the day of Your power...” Psalm 110:3

This is the air of revival! The atmosphere is charged with the presence and power of the Living God. The lost are open and willing to talk of spiritual things and many express concerns for the condition of their soul before a righteous God. Backsliders remember once again their First Love and the disciple’s labor long and hard willfully and joyfully. Where once it was difficult to preach, the congregation is now hungry and receptive, literally drawing the Anointing out of the preacher! “If I can but touch the hem of His garment.”

We may long for such atmosphere in our churches. We should pray for such liberty, power, and Presence, but we are also called to act in the present. “Now faith is...”

A disciple is always willing – drought or rain, good time or bad, trials or rejoicing! “For you are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” (1 Corinthians 6:20)

The disciple is ready in season and out. “Preach the word, be instant in season.” (2 Timothy 4:2). The disciple stands anointed to preach to the lost, pray for the sick and in general, drive the devil crazy! We are world changers and world overcomers. (1 John 5:4 – 5). The disciple lives out a life of prayer – Jesus in His constant companion and always His First Love. Repentance is quick and obedience to the Word and Spirit are not optional. The disciple who lives in such a manner may long for a general, wide spread revival throughout the land, but he lives in the now in a continuous personal revival!

“Revive me, O LORD, my First Love, my Hope, my Confidence, my Glory, the Lifter of my head! Stir my heart to continuous revival and allow Your life in me be poured out upon others. In Jesus’ name!”
