Psalm 111:6

“He has shown His people the power of His works, that He may give them the heritage of the nations.” Psalm 111:6

The Lord has always demonstrated His glory and His power among His people. To argue or even to believe that the day of miracles, signs, and wonders is cease, is to believe utter nonsense. “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever.” (Hebrews 13:8) The power of God only ebbs with the failing of men’s faith and because their confidence in God’s Word has been compromised by intellectual reasonings.

The heart of the Christian knows that God is, of course able to perform the miraculous at any time. But unbelief – taught in the form of church doctrine – coupled with the general experience of believers who have never specifically seen a miracle – have produced a Church void of any real demonstrative power – spiritual or otherwise!

“...and what is the exceeding greatness of His power towards us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power, which He worked in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and sat Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places...” (Ephesians 1:19-20). The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the pinnacle of God’s power – it released far more power than the miracles seen by the Jewish race in Egypt or even in the act of creation! Jesus conquered death – not for Himself, but for all who would put their trust in Him.

And now in His name, the Church is called to exhibit the overflow of that power to the end that the nations and peoples of the earth would know that He is alive forevermore!

“Go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature...” And these signs shall follow those who believe...” (Mark 16:15-20).

“Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.” (Romans 15:19).
