Psalm 119:17 – 18, 24

“Deal bountifully with Your servant, that I may live, and keep Your Word. Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your law...” Your testimonies also are my delight and my counselors.” Psalm 119:17 – 18, 24

Spiritual truths – no matter how simple – must be given by the Holy Spirit’s revelation. “No man can come to Me, except the Father draw him.” (John 6:44). How sad to have eyes yet not see and to have ears and yet not hear! (Mark 8:18). But this is the state of mankind without the regeneration of the Holy Spirit. We were all once “dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh” but thanks be to God, “he has made us alive together with Him having forgiven you all of your trespasses, blotting out the handwriting or ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross.” (Colossians 2:13 – 14).

To be born again is to be given spiritual eyes that see and perceive the things of God. It is to be given ears that hear and know the voice of God. The heart is recreated with desire to obey and to do the will of God – having the law of God written in tablets of flesh!

For those still in the world’s system, the Word of God is an out dated, irrelevant book of myths. To the one whose eyes have been opened by the Holy Spirit, it holds the keys to eternal life and death, poverty and wealth, health and blessing, joy and contentment.

“Open my eyes Lord, that I may behold – realize, experience for myself – the wonders of Your Word!”
