Psalm 119:140

“Thy Word is very pure; therefore, Your servant loves it.” Psalm 119:140

The Word of God tells it like it is! No pretense, no manipulation, no flattering. (With some folks you never know where you stand, The Word of God sets a mark that is absolute yet it always conveys the mercy and love of God.)

The Lord has kept His own Word – His yes is yes; His no is no! There are no character portraits where the faults and blemishes have been removed. No airbrushing the flaws away! What is seen is the way it is. There is the simplicity of truth – the purity and innocence of a child’s seeing.

The Word of God is as pure as the heart from which it springs. “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God...” (2 Timothy 3:16) The notes in the Scofield Bible for this verse say, “Every word of the Holy Scripture is inspired or “God-breathed” (Gk – Theopneustos). Without impairing the intelligence, individuality, literary style, or personal feelings of the human authors, God supernaturally directed the writers of Scripture so that they recorded in perfect accuracy His comprehensive and infallible revelation to man. If God Himself had done the writing, the written Word would be no more accurate and authoritative than it is.”

The Scriptures provide us a foundation for living – a rock upon which to be secure in the midst of changing values, cultures, and times! “Therefore, whosoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house but it didn’t fall; for it was founded upon a rock.” (Matthew 7:24 – 25)

“Lord Jesus – I love Your Word! I believe it; and in Your name, I set myself a fresh and a new to live by it! With Your help, Amen, so be it!”
