Psalm 121:3 – 8

“He will not suffer your feet to be moved; He Who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, He Who keeps Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is your keeper... the LORD shall preserve you from all evil. He shall preserve your soul. The LORD shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.”
Psalm 121:3 – 8

Do away with the nonsense that God does not care about you! Such thoughts and words are all lies whose sole intent is to alienate you from the presence and goodness of God. “Casting all your cares upon Him for He cares for you.” (1 Peter 5:8).

His watchful care is continuous – “He Who keeps you will not slumber.” In your sleeping or waking He is present and He is watching. Nothing has taken Him off guard concerning your life. Neither your mistakes (including your sin or failures) nor the actions of others (including men or demons) have caught Him off guard. He has no “Plan B” and is never in need of regrouping or rethinking His options concerning you. His thoughts toward you have been, like His Word, “forever settled in heaven.”

For those who belong to Christ, we have a confidence and hope in Him that transcends this life and is sure in the next! You can rest secure in this love and care. “What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword?... Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creation, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus, our Lord.” (Romans 8:35 – 39).

It’s okay to lie down and sleep – your Father has everything covered.

“LORD, I rest in Your love and protection over my life! Surely, You will preserve my comings and my goings from this day and forever!”
